

Resume

PROF. ROBERTO A. RODRIGO

Football Coach - Technical Director

Personal Information

Last name: Rodrigo

First and middle name: Roberto Alejandro

Nationality: Argentine and Spanish

Place and date of birth: Buenos Aires, August 26th, 1956

Contact

Email address: roberto.a.rodrigo@gmail.com

prof_rodrigo@yahoo.com

Address: Inclán 2505 - Piso 3º "17" - (C1258AAE)
Ciudad Autónoma de Buenos Aires - Argentina

Telephone: +(54 11) 4943-4282

Degrees, Speeches and Conferences Attended

- 1998 - National Football Coach (Professional License) granted from the Asociación de Técnicos del Fútbol Argentino (A.T.F.A.), Central School, Buenos Aires, Argentina.
- 1981 - National Physical Education Professor granted from the Instituto Nacional de Educación Física Dr. Enrique Romero Brest, Buenos Aires, Argentina.
- 1983-2007 - Has taken part in several seminars on physical preparation for football players, on teaching techniques and on the development of tactical systems applied to football.
- 1999-2005 - Has taken part in several conferences and talks organized in Buenos Aires by the Asociación de Técnicos Del Fútbol Argentino (A.T.F.A.), which has had the participation of prestigious international coaches and trainers: Prof. Julio Santella (Argentina), Prof. Rodolfo Valgoni (Argentina), Mr. Aimé Jacquet (France), Mr. César Luis Menotti (Argentina) and Mr. Felipe Scolari (Brazil).

Background as a Technical Director, Football Coach and Professor

- 2010-2011 - Technical Director of Myanmar Football Federation (M.F.F.) involved in the following activities:
 - Lectured at a 20-hour, an intensive theoretical and practical Coaching Course for local coaches developing physical, technical and tactical topics.
 - Developed a specific Fitness Program for the national A-teams, male and female.
 - Developed a physical, technical and tactical Program for the national youth teams, male and female.
 - Planned and directed the physical, technical and tactical training of Myanmar National A-Women's Team, which climbed to the 44th position according with FIFA/Coca-Cola

Ranking (March-July, 2011).

- Participated with Myanmar National A-Women's Team in the Olympic Games Qualifying hosted in Chinese Taipei.
 - Developed Fitness Test with Myanmar National A-Women's Team.
 - Collaborated with the physical and technical training of the U-19 and U-16 National Teams male.
- 2008-2009 - Technical Director of Barbados Football Association (B.F.A.) involved in the following activities:
- Planned and directed the physical, technical and tactical training of Barbados National A-Team male, which climbed to the 92nd position according with FIFA/Coca-Cola Ranking (October 2009), its best historical position.
 - Planned and directed the physical, technical and tactical training of the U-20 and U-17 National Teams male; and National A-Women's Team.
 - Participated with Barbados National A-Team male in the Digicel Caribbean Tournament hosted in Cuba and in Jamaica.
 - Lectured at a 40-hour, a practical Coaching Course for local club coaches that is involved in the Premier League and First Division, developing physical, technical and tactical topics.
 - Developed a Program to standardize this sports training for the high performance.
- Since 2008 - Supports a variety of clubs, confederations and international newspapers with articles of opinion, elaborating on themes inherent to football: Rojo y Blanco C.F. of Spain (www.rojoyblancocf.com), Federación de Castilla y León de Fútbol of Spain (www.fcylf.es), Club Deportivo El Nacional of Equator (www.elnacional.ec), Centro Deportivo Olmedo of Equator (www.cdolmedo.com.ec), Federación de Fútbol de República Dominicana in the Dominican Republic (www.fedofutbol.org), Ciudadanía Informada in Equator (www.ciudadaniainformada.com) and the Spanish digital newspaper HA10 (www.ha10.es).
- 1999-2000 - Coached the A-Team of Waterhouse F.C. of Jamaica, which participate in the Premier League of the Jamaica Football Championship organized by Jamaica Football Federation (J.F.F).
- 1994-1995 - Collaborated with the Asociación Atlética Argentinos Juniors (A.A.A.J.), Argentina, carrying out physical-technical preparation work with young in the 13-15 age groups. It is in this prestigious institution where Diego A. Maradona started his professional career.
- 1988-1995 - Together with a group of assistants, physically and tactically trained Misiones A-team male which presently take part in the Club Gimnasia y Esgrima de Buenos Aires Amateur Football Championship.
- 1985-1986 - Field assistant and physical trainer under Mr. Juan Carlos Piris, head coach of the A-team of Club San Telmo of Argentina, which participated in the 2nd division of the Argentine Football Championship organized by Argentine Football Association (A.F.A.).
- 1981-1989 - Founder and director of the own Football School for children between the ages of 5 and 13 in Buenos Aires.
- 1981-1993 - Physical Education teacher in public elementary schools in the Gobierno de la Ciudad de Buenos Aires area, and also in private schools.

Background as a Football Player

- 1979 - Played at Club Argentino de Merlo in Argentina, A-Team, which at that time participated in the 4th division of the Argentine Football Championship organized by Argentine Football Association (A.F.A.).
- 1978 - Summoned by Mr. Carmelo Faraone, head coach of the Club Ferro Carril Oeste in Argentina to become part of the A-Team. At that time, this club participated in the first (top) division of the Argentine Football Championship organized by Argentine Football Association (A.F.A.).
- 1977-1990 - Played in different championships of the 1st division as part of the Club de Gimnasia y Esgrima de Buenos Aires in Argentina, and was a player of the G.E.B.A. football team for 4 years.
- 1974-1976 - Played in Club Almagro, Argentina, which at that time participated in the 2nd division of the Argentine Football Championship organized by Argentine Football Association (A.F.A.).